

MAPFRE | INSURANCE[®]

At MAPFRE Insurance we build relationships based on trust. We're committed to providing high quality products, valuable services and exceptional experiences for our agents and their customers.

MAPFRE Insurance offers a full range of insurance solutions for the home, vehicle, life, and business, operating in 19 states across the country. We are the 19th largest private passenger auto insurer and the 21st largest Property-Casualty Insurer. MAPFRE Insurance also recently received "A+" Accreditation from The Better Business Bureau (BBB) in all of the 19 states where we conduct business.

Globally, the MAPFRE Group is the benchmark insurer in Latin America and one of the top 10 insurance companies in Europe in terms of premium volume. MAPFRE employs more than 38,000 professionals and services approximately 34 million clients.

Entering Pennsylvania in 2014, market stability and historical performance were key factors in our drive to establish a presence in the Keystone State. MAPFRE offers Pennsylvania agents a range of innovative products, including passenger and commercial automobile lines, homeowners, umbrella, commercial lines - BOP, and life insurance. With enhanced personal lines product features, we are committed to providing our agency partners with a competitive advantage in the marketplace.

Since MAPFRE Insurance is in the business of taking care of people, we understand the importance of working together to accomplish great things. For many years, our company and employees have made meaningful contributions to where we live and work through our Community Partners Volunteer Program. This past year, MAPFRE employees in Pennsylvania partnered with agents and brokers for an array of events ranging from a volunteer day at Cradles to Crayons to food and toy drives, and community walks.
